DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to communication of 4/3/2006 electing invention of figure 1, claims 1-7. Currently claims 1-7 are pending and rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by French et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,095,997). French et al discloses a device that is a quasi-T shaped catheter (see figures 1-4) for delivering drugs to a vessel, comprising: a first chamber positioned at one limb of said quasi-T shaped catheter and having a first portal for delivering the drugs (22a); a second chamber positioned at another limb of said quasi-T shaped catheter opposite to the first chamber and having a second portal for delivering the drugs (22b); and a third chamber positioned at the other limb of the quasi-T shaped catheter and having a third portal for infusing drugs (34); wherein said quasi-T shaped catheter is formed as an integral piece (10,30) and said first, second and third chambers are in communication with each other (figure 1), and the first portal and the second portal are to be inserted into the vessels (figure 3). French discloses quasi-T shaped catheter formed of biocompatible materials (paragraph at column 6, line 20), wherein the cross sections of said first chamber and said second chamber are of an annular shape (figure 1A, elements 29,28,22,21) and first chamber and said second chamber further comprises an anti-reflux valve (50). Further French discloses a catheter wherein said first chamber and second chamber each has a length between 3 and 10 cm (paragraph at column 9, line 20).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over French et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,095,997) in view of Patnaik (U.S. Patent Number 5,728,751). French discloses the claimed invention except for an anti-coagulation coating is applied to its interior surface. Patnaik teaches that it is known to use an anti-coagulation coating applied to an interior surface as set forth in paragraphs at columns 10-11, to provide an anti-infective and an anti-thrombogenic action surface to the drug delivery device. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the drug delivery device as taught by French with an anti-coagulation coating applied to an interior surface as taught by Patnaik, since such a modification would provide the drug delivery device with an anti-coagulation coating applied to an interior surface for providing an anti-infective and an anti-thrombogenic action surface to the drug delivery device.
